

Dr Jason Young

Lecturer

School of History, Philosophy, Political Science & International Relations

jason.young@vuw.ac.nz

Qualifications

BSc Otago

MIR VUW

PhD VUW

Research Interests

Jason's current research is supported through a Marsden Fast Start from the Royal Society of New Zealand and focuses on investment and the operations of New Zealand agribusiness in rural China.

Thesis Supervision

I am interested in supervising graduate research at both the Masters and Doctoral level in the following broad areas:

- Chinese politics and development, particularly rural development
- New Zealand-China/Asia relations
- East Asian politics and international relations

Selected Publications

- China's Hukou System: Markets, Migrants and Institutional Change, (London: Palgrave Macmillan, June 2013).
- 'Hukou, Labour Markets and the Chinese Developmental State', Fudan Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences, vol 5, no.3 (2012): 1-25.
- 'Labor Movement and Economic Growth: Shaping and Managing the Lewis Transition in China and India' pp.150-179 of China, India and the End of Development Models edited by Xiaoming Huang, Alexander C Tan and Sekhar Bandyopadhyay, (London: Palgrave MacMillan, 2012).
- 'Investing in the Economic Integration of China and New Zealand', China Papers, no.22 (2012): 1-31.
- 'The Evolution of China's Rural Land Tenure System', proceedings of the 19th New Zealand Asian Studies Society International Conference, (2011): 54-59.

- 'China's Changing Hukou System: Institutional Objectives, Formal Arrangements and Informal Practices', pp.130-151 of The Institutional Dynamics of China's Great Transformation edited by Xiaoming Huang, (Oxon: Routledge, 2010).
- 'New Zealand's Policy towards Britain Joining the Common Market' (with Jia Wenhua), World History, vol 5 (2009): 48-58 (Chinese).